ORGANIZATIONS

Percy Julian P.T.A.

The Percy Julian and 40th street schools' Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a rummage sale tomorrow (Saturday) beginning at 9:30 a. m. and continuing throughout the day. Members of the planning committee include Mmes. Thomas Wilson, chairman; William C. Smith, Letha Slaughter and Leonard Wilburn; and Messrs. Albridge Keith, George Diggs and William Wilson.

The location will be on the southwest corner of Broadway and 25th street. Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase an electric water cooler.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority

South Mountain Park was the scene of the first annual get-together of the Sigma Gamma Rho and its chapters—the Beta Pi and Rho Club—last Saturday night. Over 25 people turned out for the delightful evening of fun consisting of music and dancing, topped off with a delectable dinner served in buffet style.

Merry Mixers Club

The Merry Mixers met at the home of Mrs. Marie Walton of 607 South Fourth Avenue last Sunday. A new member, Mrs. Janie Washington, was present, also Mrs. Bessie Pruitt, who has been absent on a six-month sick leave. After business, the group engaged in various games.—Mrs. Lillian Cagle, reporter.

Carver PTA

A meeting Tuesday night, April 21, in the library of the Carver High School, is scheduled for the executive board of Carver's Parent-Teacher Association. Tentative plans for a party to honor this year's graduates will be outlined.

The following morning, the two delegates to the state meeting, Mrs. Robert H. Harper, president, and Mrs. Scotty Oby, program chairman, will board a chartered Greyhound bus with other delegates for Flagstaff where the 3-day meet will be held.

Fashion Show, Tea Soiree, Successful

The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Wesley Methodist Church may record their Fashion Show and Tea Soiree given last Sunday at the church as one of the season's most successful church affairs. Between the hours of three and seven, members and friends gathered to view fashions and to be served tea.

The first half of the program was the showing of fashions by small fry, the junior, the intermediates, the youth, and the family groups. Mrs. Cora Griffin played background music at the piano. Little Miss Gertrude Murrell gave a piano solo; Master Morris A. Ward, Jr., a saxophone solo, and several selections were rendered by West Phoenix High ensemble.

Tea was served immediately following the program with background music furnished at the up-right by Mrs. D. F. Benson. Vocal solos were offered by Mrs. Emmalyn Collins, Mrs. Ollie Mae Christopher and the Rev. Wm. Stevens, the pastor. Mmes. Vergie Woods and Thelma Johnson sang a duet, as did Misses Laverne Bass and Geraldine McDonald. Mrs. Collins also played a piano duet with Master Gabriel Romero.

Officers of the Society are Mmes. Walter B. Scott, president; Morris A. Ward, Sr., vice-president; Mabel C. McFalls, recording secretary; and Bettie Moore, treasurer.

Former Phoenicians Visit Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. James Earl, formerly of Phoenix, motored from Los Angeles, Calif., last week for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. Earl is the brother of Mrs. Leola Dykes, 910 W. Grant St., and Mrs. Earl is the sister of Richard Minyard, 1839 E. Adams St.

Mr. Earl returned home Sunday night, and Mrs. Earl, who is staying with her brother will return by train Saturday night. She may be remembered as the first secretary of the Mathew Henson Housing Project.

Mrs. Ida Austin, 1119 South 6th Avenue, entertained Mrs. Earl Wednesday afternoon and served home made hot tamales and chili, ice cream and cookies. Mrs. Bessie Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bass also attended.

CHARM

NEW YORK (Global) — I recently had the pleasure and privilege of meeting and chatting with a number of Catholic Sisters who were traveling together to the National Catholic Educational Convention. It was a beautiful experience to observe all the assets of charm as they should be displayed and actually lived.

Their quiet manner, voices, movements, laugh, conversation, and sincerity of expression were beautiful and the beauty came from within, as it should. Their regal bearing and poise displayed indeed the true loveliness of womanhood. You, too, can be charming by donning a quiet, sincere manner. Try it!

Memory Lane . . .

Five years ago at about this same time of year, if you remember, property owners in the Roosevelt School District school voted almost unanimously for $164,000 school bond issue for which to purchase sites for two schools, one on Broadway west of 24th Street and the other on Third and Fifth Streets between Illini and Southgate. The nine acre site west of 24th Street was purchased from the Progressive Builders, estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $8,000 . . . Phoenix Welfare League of which E. A. #### Former Phoenician Returns For Marriage

Amidst the balmy sunshiny weather and the warm hospitality of his friends and admirers, Julius A. (Bus) Lee, a former Phoenician, returned to his beloved Phoenix last weekend to take unto himself a lovely bride.

Mr. Lee and his bride, Mrs. Lillie Belle Montgomery of San Gabriel, Calif., arrived in the city last Friday night, accompanied by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bratton, of Los Angeles. The marriage ceremony was performed by a friend of the groom, Judge Al Flood of the Phoenix Westside Precinct Court. Witnesses were the relatives of the bride and Mrs. Charleetta Banks, hostess to the party while in the city.

The Brattons are very distinguished citizens of Los Angeles, he being one of the two Negro CPA's in the state. He served for many years as supervising auditor of Los Angeles tax board of equization. He also ran for United States Congress in 1942 from the Southern District of California. Mrs. Bratton just returned recently after a trip around the world, having spent considerable time in Bombay, India.

The newlyweds will reside in San Francisco where Mr. Lee will begin his new position with the Calvert Distillery Company this week.

Fashion Designer Says Plan Your Travel Wardrobe

NEW YORK (GLOBAL)—Mrs. Beulah Bullock, a top dress designer of 500 West 143rd Street, New York City, recently emphasized the importance of a well planned wardrobe, especially when one has a trip in mind.

"Climate varies, very widely from country to country," said Mrs. Bullock, "and it is always a determining factor in travel wardrobe planning."

The talented young woman, whose future plans include establishing a "Plan Your Wardrobe" business, believes that the need is great for this kind of service. "Our women," continued Mrs. Bullock, "do not always have the proper guidance in choosing their wardrobe, especially their travel clothes. Some of them would as quickly choose a fur coat for Florida as an organdy dress, or in making a selection for Canada, commit the same type of error."

Mrs. Bullock possesses an unmistakable knack for speed. She can drape and finish a gown while her customer waits—a great time-saving feat for the girl who goes to business. She won first prize at one of the Harvest Moon Annual Balls in Madison Square Garden. The organization gave the award for a gown which she fashioned out of 38 yards of heaven blue Chiffon and which was adorned with a host of 20-inch ostrich feathers evenly spaced over the whole skirt.

"I am a lover of beauty," said Mrs. Bullock, "and I enjoy expressing my ideals of beauty by creating materials into suits, gowns, dresses—any type of garment."

Mrs. Bullock is known as the "personality designer" because she makes each garment to complement the personality of the customer, and she has been called a perfectionist because of her enthusiastic search for her idea of fineness when she is creating a garment.

Mrs. Bullock, who is a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, and who came to New York from Henderson, N. C., about 20 years ago, said she has sewed successfully since she was nine years old. She is the proud mother of two children, Lucy and Bubby, and grandmother of Anette, whose mother is Lucy.

Klu Kluk Klan On War Path Again In Tennessee

A crude cross burned in the front of the home of a Negro attorney George W. McDade, because of insinuations of common-law lewdness between him and Miss Beulah Boston, a white employee of the wealthy lawyer, both of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Type-written notes reportedly found at the scenes of the burning bearing the Klu Kluk Klan insignia read: "Stay away from white women." The one to Miss Boston read, "We do not approve of your recent act, this is your first and final warning."

McDade was arrested in the home of Miss Boston, March 13. The attorney maintained that he went to the home of his employee to take food since she had been ill. Arresting officers said the attorney was fully clad, while Miss Boston was in pajamas.

McDade's trial originally set for April 3, was re-set to April 24.

Newly-Organized Club Entertained

One of the latest clubs to organize in the city was entertained in the beautiful and artistic home of the architect, Mr. and Mrs. Mel C. Ensign, 2200 E. Bethany Home Road. The newly organized club is called the Phoenix Business League, comprised of Negroes in business.

About 20 of the league members gathered last Monday at the architect's elaborate home which is built in the side of a mountain, to hear a lecture and view slides on industrial and residential architecture of the countries of Europe and Old Mexico. Games and refreshments followed.

Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Clarence Myles, S. C. Boyer, Lincoln Ragsdale, Henry Clack, and D. F. Benson; Mesdames Robert Tate, Gilbert Grey, and Pearl Cook Turner, and Messrs. Jordan Harris, H. A. Dawley, Carl Sims, William Dickey, Manuel Cherry, and Lonny Grey.
